bill, something like a poison pill lurking there?

SENATOR BROMM: (Laugh) Well, we...we agreed to the amendment. I think two very well-intended reasonable people agreed and it went...it actually went to the Bill Drafter with the word...it just said the officer's sworn report. The word "hearing" was inserted when the amendment was returned and neither of those reasonable people that agreed upon that noticed that apparently. Or maybe...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Who were the two?

SENATOR BROMM: ...one of them did and the sly fox didn't say anything. I don't know.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh, when you say sly fox, was one of those reasonable persons a silver fox sitting innocently at the back of the Chamber?

SENATOR BROMM: No. No. No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Does this indicate, Senator...wait a minute. You said it was not? Well, who was this other reasonable person then?

SENATOR BROMM: Well, I think...I think I'm looking at him, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And you said that neither of these two reasonable persons had put the word "hearing" in front of the word "officer".

SENATOR BROMM: That's...I've got the draft of the amendment and that's correct.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So the amendment to which these two reasonable people agreed did not have that word in it.

SENATOR BROMM: It did not.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Now, under our rules, E & R amendments are not read unless somebody would make that request. Sometimes it
